

CONTENTS

JANUARY | FEBRUARY 2012 ISSUE 234

Clockwise from above: Heidi Huttunen (Finland) competing in Beauty Therapy at WorldSkills 2011; Lime and Pink Bandhini (detail), Tanvi Kant, printed chiffon, cotton, 2010; Fractal Table II (detail), Platform

manufactured by .MGX by Materialise, 2007; Explosive: Frozen Fireworks nro. 54, Mia Maljojoki, plaster, pigment, paint, rubber band, 2011
Cover: Bamboo & Cutting Tools, Chien-Wei Chang, silver, brass, 2010

REGULARS

- 03 EDITORIAL
The wider world of craft
- 05 UP FRONT
Shane Waltener dances; 12 Months of Neon Love; Jennifer Lee, Hans Stofer, Laura Ellen Bacon at Roche Court; Made in the Middle; Gavin Turk & Fine Cell Work; Cotton at the Whitworth; Jerwood Makers Open winners for 2012; Golden Spider Silk comes to London; WorldSkills 2011 reviewed; Gordon Baldwin at York; Crafts' six-month event-planner
- 26 OPINION:
MORTON'S MISSION
Alastair Morton should be regarded as a pivotal figure in British crafts, says Lesley Jackson
- 26 TALENT SPOT:
FOREVER BLOWING BUBBLES
Textile designer Emily Crane sees a future of food, Teleri Lloyd-Jones explains
- 57 REVIEWS
Ptolemy Mann at Ruthin; Barnaby Barford; Terence Conran at the Design Museum; Lost in Lace; Edward Bawden; Reflections; Maarten Baas in Paris; China's Porcelain City
- 67 CRAFTS GUIDE
Comprehensive listing of UK Galleries
- 79 BACK
Letterpress and laughter in Blackpool; Archive: in 1981, Tony Birks discussed Gordon Baldwin's challenging ceramics; gallerist Matthew Hall on the things that inspire him; Rosy Greenlees; Dates; Tanya Harrod on the future of the 3D printer

FEATURES

- 36 NINE LIVES
Celebrating its first anniversary, Studio Manifold is a collective of nine RCA graduates who have discovered that there is strength in numbers. By Teleri Lloyd-Jones
- 42 THE POWER AND THE GLORY
In an extract from her new book, Liesbeth den Besten examines the meaning of jewellery and discovers that all that glitters is not necessarily gold
- 46 HIDE FIDELITY
Alex Randall is a lighting designer, artist and maker whose work often features taxidermy. But, asks Emma Love, what's with the Freddie Mercury statue?
- 52 CRAFT AND COUNTRY
As the shape of things, a two-year scheme celebrating the many facets of British identity, draws to a close, Emma Crichton Miller meets silversmith Chien-Wei Chang and assesses the project's impact

A younger generation of jewellery designers has succeeded in creating pieces that are empowering, imposing and even cheeky
LIESBETH DEN BESTEN