

CONTENTS

Muti Randolph gets emotional at Melissa in London on page 097.

023

Seeds FRAME

What piqued our curiosity during this year's Salone del Mobile

Ilse Crawford opens up on page 052.

051

Portraits

052

Ilse Crawford

'Other fields give design a purpose'

056

Jonas Forsman FRAME

Marcel Wanders' latest Moooi recruit

061

Ronald Hooft

Salone del Mobile: a love affair with the fair

062

Klaus Kemp FRAME

Work that demands a closer look

066

Cos FRAME

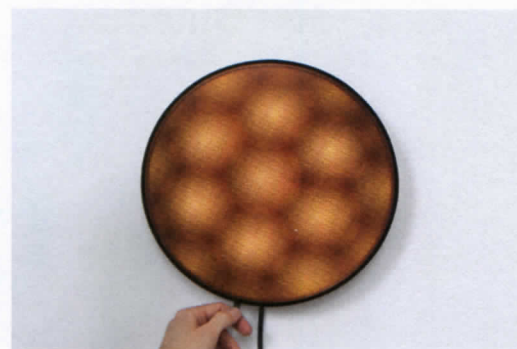

Stripping down with Snarkitecture

070

Rodrigo Almeida FRAME

Representing a brand-new Brazil

Articles featuring this logo allow you to view extra content in the Frame App

David Derksen Design's Moiré lights make 'The Final Edit' on page 042.

074

Ayka Design

Magic carpets

081

Harvest FRAME

The pick of the crop: a visual feast plucked from the worlds of art and design

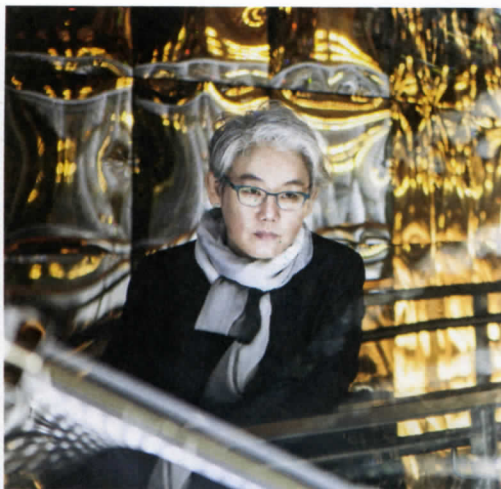

Photo Antonio Campanella

Lee Bul reveals her 'biggest dilemma' on page 130.

130

Features

130

Lee Bul

Exceptional versions of everyday reality

142

Miu Miu

The art of seduction with Herzog & de Meuron

148

Exploded Cinema

One Plus Partnership's blockbuster

177

Reports

178

Palomba Serafini Associati

Stellar sanitary

182

Bette

Products that steel the show

186

Sanitary

The buzz on bathrooms

Products by Ludovica and Roberto Palomba feature on page 178.

Photo Nacása & Partners, Inc.

Herzog & de Meuron takes us home to Miu Miu on page 142.

196

Deconstructed

From truck to tote with Freitag

200

Short Cut

A wise alternative to passé plastics

202

Deconstructed

El Equipo Creativo modernizes Mediterranean

206

The Reissue

Gubi revives a Grossman sofa

208

In Numbers

Stone Island's material manipulations

— FRAME LAB —

Products

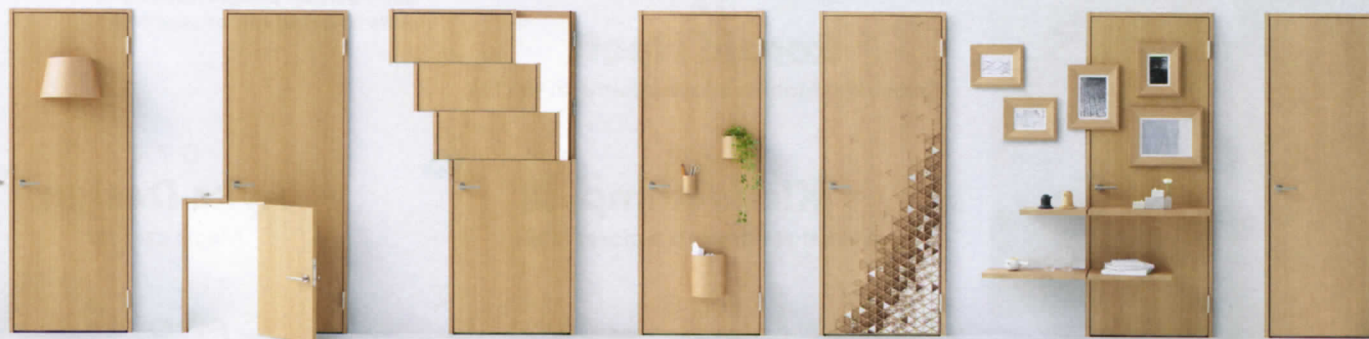

Photo Akihiro Yoshida

Meet the game-changers

160

Nendo and other forward-thinking designers star in this issue's Frame Lab.