

CONTENTS

— October 2015

C

- 123 – 126 Gazeta Wyborcza REPORT: How Poland's liberal paper of choice balances tradition with forward-thinking.
- 131 – 133 Casa Wabi REPORT: A new artists' residency embracing the community on Mexico's Pacific coast.
- 134 – 135 The Conversation FILM POSTERS: Director Nicolas Winding Refn talks to illustrator Steven Chorney about film-poster art.
- 138 – 139 Joshua Roth Q&A: The head of United Talent Agency's Fine Arts division on connecting artists to a wider world of media.
- 140 – 141 Art market: Frieze BRIEFING: Universal Design Studio lays out the setting for this year's London art fair.
- 142 – 144 Culture BRIEFING: Choice cuts from the world's creative minds.
- 148 – 150 Media BRIEFING: Les Echos enters the world of weekend supplements, plus this month's audio and visual highlights.

D

- 153 – 157 Design for memory REPORT: Commemorating difficult times is an emotive issue; we visit New Zealand, London and Colombia to meet the memorial-makers with an uneasy task.
- 159 – 160 Design BRIEFING: A collection of postwar UK architecture offers a trove of ideas, plus our creative round-up.
- 163 – 233 Style Directory GUIDE: MONOCLE celebrates style with staying power, plus our fashion selection for autumn/winter.
- 245 – 250 Danish embassy RESIDENCE: The London outpost reflects a vision of modern Denmark – and pays homage to Winston Churchill.
- 252 – 255 Tsutaya Electrics REPORT: A good-looking electronics shop is giving hi-tech more welcoming surroundings.

E

- 257 – 259 October essentials INVENTORY: Cookware, lamps, gin, wooden toys and notebooks are just some of this month's must-haves.
- 260 – 261 Travel BRIEFING: The best autumn openings in which to rest your weary head (and try black-squid couscous).
- 262 – 263 Laird & Company SPECIALIST: The experts working wonders with a tantalising tippie: apple brandy.
- 264 – 267 Kreis 4 PROPERTY PROSPECTUS: How a red-light district in Zürich cleaned up but didn't clear out.
- 268 – 269 Sudestada RECIPE: Chef Estanislao Carenzo shares his global approach to food, along with how to make an Iberian pig-ear salad.
- 270 – 271 Food BRIEFING: Sweden's largest organic supermarket, some great grills and a navy-strength gin all pass the taste test.
- 272 – 273 John Jay MY LAST MEAL: The creative powerhouse pulls up a chair at Stray Dogs in Portland, Oregon.
- 275 – 289 Schwingen EXPO: We head for the hills for a day of traditional Swiss wrestling (watching, not participating).
- 290 Editor's observation LETTER: A word from our editor in chief.

C

Gazeta Wyborcza
Warsaw
PI23—126

D

Design for memory
Global
PI53—157

E

My Last Meal
Portland,
Oregon
P272—273

