

CONTENTS

On page 112, Gijs Van Vaerenbergh's steel maze occupies the main courtyard of C-mine, an art centre in Genk, Belgium.

023

Seeds FRAME

We go from atelier to laboratory in search of what's bubbling on the fringes of the great indoors

Photo Mirjam Klucka

Buenos Aires-born Alfredo Häberli gets up close and personal on page 067.

065

Portraits

067

Alfredo Häberli

'Che bello is enough'

072

Brand van Egmond

Ornamental emotion

077

Ronald Hooft

Plant-life overkill

079

Claire Morgan FRAME

Heavenly creatures

084

Hem

E-commerce, take two

089

Linehouse

Stripping it back in Shanghai

Alice Dunseath explores the chemistry of change on page 024.

094

Piero Lissoni

Domotex's special guest talks surfaces

097

Harvest FRAME

The pick of the crop: a visual feast plucked from the worlds of art and design

— FRAME LAB —

MATERIALS

It's a matter of intelligence

157

Photo Darek Fortas

208

Gaggenau

Culinary art

216

Caesarstone

Over the counter

220

Short Cut

The Bouroullecs' ceramic alphabet

222

The Reissue

Back to school with Hille

224

In Numbers

Jasper Morrison's MP 01
in facts and figures

Features

146

Adrian van Hooydonk

Firing on all cylinders

157

Frame Lab Material Futures

162

Five strategies for smarter materials

176

Visual essay

188

Material ConneXion

Photo Antonio Campanella

Turn to page 146 to discover what BMW's Adrian van Hooydonk has to say about the future of mobility.

193

Reports

194

Leicht

Saying it with space

198

Kitchens

Moving towards smart appliances

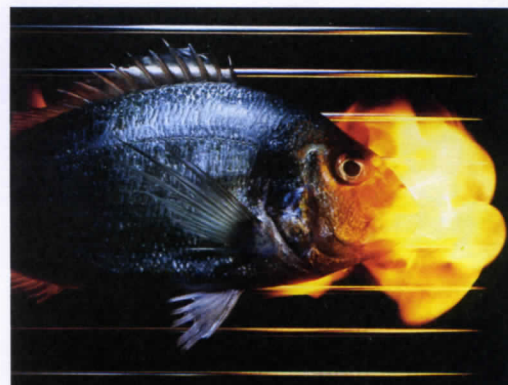

206

Trend Report

Brands team up with top designers

FRAME

Articles featuring this logo allow you to view extra content in the Frame App

Things gets steamy with Gaggenau on page 208.

See what's cooking in the world of kitchens on page 198.

Photo courtesy of Schiffrini