

JUNE

Contents

AT THE FRONT

- 025 - 026 Ed's letter A word from our editor in chief, Tyler Brülé.
- 026 - 027 The opener Our snapshot of global views and news.
- 029 - 030 Observations Music played with military precision in Ukraine, a whistle-stop tour of German history and connecting Japan and South Korea via the world's longest undersea tunnel.
- 032 - 033 My Cabinet Austrian radio presenter Natalie Brunner on surrounding herself with strong women - a sound strategy.
- 034 Cosy corner Pre-eminent signage designer Donald Meeker points the way to New York's Museum of Arts and Design.

AFFAIRS

- 037 - 043 Turkey REPORT: War has meant that the Turkish city of Van has been lacking in visitors but now it's being transformed by liberal Iranians in search of freedom - and a good time.
- 044 - 045 High-speed rail REPORT: New projects in the US are set to make riding the tracks part of American life once more.
- 047 - 051 Essays REPORT: Why Berlin's new airport still hasn't got off the ground, the driverless future that already feels passé and the rise and fall (and rise) of the electric car.
- 054 - 055 Yukiya Amano INTERVIEW: The head of the International Atomic Energy Authority gives us his nuclear-risk forecast - and it's not bright and breezy.
- 057 Politics BRIEFING: The Oregon governor who's the antithesis of Donald Trump, a ne'er-do-well election line-up in Liberia and overdue renovations at Vienna's Hofburg Palace.
- 058 Diplomacy BRIEFING: Taiwan's representative to the UK on his country's relationship with China, Roma culture in the German capital and the man in the middle of Greek-Turkish spats.
- 059 Defence BRIEFING: Finland goes shopping, Indonesia gets a new frigate, Colombia looks to plug a few post-Farc voids and Singapore finds a new place to park its F15s.
- 061 Cities BRIEFING: Seoul's mayor adds some soul to his city, the Polish government has new-airport aspirations and Canada's largest ferry operator gets set to revitalise its fleet.
- 062 - 063 China STATE OF THE NATION: China's president remains popular but how strong is his grasp on the country?

BUSINESS

- 065 - 071 Mobility REPORT: The transport start-ups earning their wings in the Bavarian capital.
- 072 - 073 Monica Mondardini HOW I MANAGE: The unflappable CEO on her straightforward approach to business.
- 076 - 077 Cycling REPORT: The bicycle retailers who are changing gears and offering the smartest urban bikes.
- 078 - 081 Technogym HQ AUDIT: The gym-equipment giant with a business model fitter than most.
- 082 - 083 Frederick Ma 10 STEPS TO SUCCESS: The chairman of Hong Kong's subway network trains his eye on the objects and attitudes that help him maintain his drive.
- 085 Business BRIEFING: The companies launching the space sector into orbit and Portugal's marriage of tradition and technology.

Turkey — AFFAIRS, page 037.

Mobility — BUSINESS, page 065.

ISSUE 104 COVER
PHOTOGRAPHER:
David Sykes

C CULTURE

- 087 - 093 Television REPORT: The family affair responsible for building sets for the US's most-talked-about TV shows.
- 096 - 099 Art REPORT: The gallerist whose glittering career mirrors the fluidity of Germany's art scene.
- 100 Culture BRIEFING: Switzerland's new typographical magazine, the world's dominant television format and the woman connecting Canada's artists to its venues.

D DESIGN

- 125 - 129 Transport TOP 15: The travel solutions that are taking things up a gear or two.
- 131 - 135 Zürich RESIDENCE: The modernist concrete colony created by Swiss architect Eduard Neuenchwander.
- 138 - 139 Architecture BRIEFING: The Swiss Natural History Museum and its new home, the Nordic airport offering visitors a warm welcome and a few fixes for Belgrade's cycling infrastructure.
- 140 - 143 Staircases REPORT: An ode to the place for chance meetings and delightful discoveries - and five examples of the best.
- 145 - 148 Shopping MERCHANDISE: Spring is in the air and on the shelves.
- 151 - 166 Expo REPORT: The products that are taking off at Hamburg's annual Aircraft Interiors Expo (check out those hot-dog buns).

E ENTERTAINING

- 169 - 171 Supermarkets REPORT: Two of the world's best supermarkets and why they're getting things right.
- 172 - 173 Pasta REPORT: The man building a more sustainable future for the production of Italy's most quintessential foodstuff.
- 174 - 175 Food and drink BRIEFING: The best places to eat in Santa Monica, new openings in Amsterdam, London and Los Angeles and artisanal cheese from Singapore.
- 176 - 177 Flammekueche RECIPE: A versatile dish able to satisfy salt cravings as well as a sweet tooth.
- 178 - 179 Edi Rama MY LAST MEAL: The prime minister of Albania brings an appetite to his fictional final meal.

F FASHION

- 181 - 183 Oslo REPORT: The Norwegian labels getting out of their comfort zones and strutting their stuff on the world stage.
- 184 - 187 St Tropez REPORT: How retail works in one of the world's most elite jet-set strongholds.
- 188 - 189 Fashion BRIEFING: Corelate, Ode to Sunday and Narifuri.
- 190 - 201 Men's and womenswear FASHION: Mobility-focused fashion to suit journeys long and short.

I INVENTORY

- 203 - 207 The Ned REPORT: The new London hotel, club and restaurant complex that's banking on success.
- 208 - 209 Travel BRIEFING: Tokyo's Trunk Hotel breaks the mould.
- 210 - 211 Travel essentials THE LIST: Not least undies and USBs.
- 212 - 215 Retail BRIEFING: Music, books, homeware - here's the rundown.
- 216 - 217 Lisbon BEST IN CLASS: The colourful shop bringing tropicana to the Portuguese capital by way of Brazil.
- 218 Stockists DIRECTORY: Sleep, eat and shop in the world's top cities.

Television — CULTURE, page 087.

Residence — DESIGN, page 131.

Supermarkets — ENTERTAINING, page 169.

Saint-Tropez — FASHION, page 184.

Lisbon — INVENTORY, page 216.