

NOVEMBER

Contents

AT THE FRONT

- 022 Contributors Some of the fine folk who made this issue.
- 025 – 026 Ed's letter A word from our editor in chief Tyler Brülé.
- 026 – 027 The opener Our snapshot of global views and news.
- 029 & 030 Observations Getting down at the last juke joint in the American South and beating Google Street View in Vienna.
- 034 – 035 My Cabinet Swedish film director Ruben Östlund on the crew who help him win awards.
- 036 Cosy Corner Italian fashion scion Angela Missoni lets us into her rural hideaway stuffed with quirky flea-market finds.

AFFAIRS

- 041 – 048 Iceland REPORT: As Russia is once again causing concern in the Arctic, the US airforce heads north to defend a longtime ally. But will it stay for good?
- 052 – 053 Kersti Kaljulaid INTERVIEW: Estonia's president tells us why openness is the new frontline of defence.
- 057 Politics BRIEFING: How do you do foreign affairs when nobody recognises your country? Plus: why the US is in the year of the infallible mayor.
- 060 Diplomacy BRIEFING: A Norwegian aid airlift, the UN's man in South Sudan and why hurricane season has reinvigorated Puerto Rico's statehood bid.
- 064 Defence BRIEFING: Colombia's defence minister on post-Farc security, Turkey's pilot shortage, a game-changing water vessel and what's in a name for the Royal Canadian navy's ships.
- 069 Cities BRIEFING: A tale of two disaster-ready cities, the view on participatory urbanism from Aarhus and LA's inventive way of dealing with the hot, hot heat.
- 072 – 073 South Africa STATE OF THE NATION: We find out how the rainbow nation is preparing for post-Zuma politics.
- 075 – 078 Melbourne REPORT: The pope of the Coptic Church heads down under to open a pioneering new church-cum-skyscraper. We meet the Copts who made it happen.
- 083 – 098 Expo REPORT: The Faroe Islands have spent the past 600 years under Danish rule. Can they go it alone?

BUSINESS

- 101 – 106 How we work REPORT: Shared workspaces are all the rage but now they're big business too. So is the collaborative ethos that initially spurred them into being still alive?
- 109 – 114 E-bikes REPORT: As electric bikes come of age, everyone is hopping on the craze. Here's who is leading the pack.
- 116 – 117 Maria Rorbye Ronn 10 STEPS TO SUCCESS: The head of Danish public broadcaster DR tells us how early-morning swims and an Emmy keep her sharp.
- 118 – 119 Tad Smith HOW I MANAGE: The CEO of Sotheby's explains the art of rejuvenating the historic auction house.
- 121 Business BRIEFING: The new generation of helpful travel agencies, an urban distiller gives his team a getaway and cycle helmets that are both sturdy and sleek.

USAF in Iceland — AFFAIRS, page 41.

How we work — BUSINESS, page 101.

ISSUE 108 COVER
ILLUSTRATOR:
Tomas Fryszak

C

CULTURE

- 187 – 192 YSL Museum REPORT: The late designer's Paris atelier and Marrakech home transformed for posterity.
- 195 – 200 Jeddah REPORT: We explore Saudi Arabia's most liberal city.

D

DESIGN

- 203 – 213 Top 50 REPORT: The world's finest designs, from chairs to linen, are here for your delectation.
- 217 – 220 Hida Furniture REPORT: We explore a renowned Japanese manufacturing region and drop in on its famous fair.
- 222 – 227 Tasmania RESIDENCE: A timber-lined cottage in Tasmania that captures the imagination.
- 230 – 232 Bristol RESIDENCE: In Bristol, UK, modernist design shines through in a house brimming with glass and porcelain.
- 235 – 239 Who we'd hire REPORT: From retail fit-outs to housing developments, the small firms designing the best buildings.
- 241 – 243 Tecta REPORT: Flying the Bauhaus flag with pride.
- 245 – 248 Shopping MERCHANDISE: Choice items to keep you warm this winter.

E

ENTERTAINING

- 251 – 254 Bakeries REPORT: The rising fortunes of three city-centre bakeries in Melbourne, Stockholm and Tokyo.
- 257 – 258 Food & drink BRIEFING: A tasty Tasmanian affair and dispatches from Merano, LA and Reykjavik.
- 260 – 261 Chicken marsala with fregola RECIPE: A Sicilian delicacy, finessed in France and adored in the US.
- 262 – 263 Alain de Botton MY LAST MEAL: We break bread with the Swiss-born author and philosopher.

F

FASHION

- 265 – 267 Retail INTERVIEW: Osamu Shigematsu, the dapper co-founder and chairman of Japanese trailblazer United Arrows.
- 268 – 271 Manufacturing REPORT: Hermès is reinvesting in French regional manufacturing; we visit its new glove-making workshop.
- 272 – 273 Fashion BRIEFING: French dresses, Californian totes and a men's label from product designer Jasper Morrison.
- 274 – 285 Men's & womenswear FASHION: Dressing up for winter.

I

INVENTORY

- 287 – 289 Olhão REPORT: An Algarve town that's far from tacky – and attracting all the more hoteliers and curious customers for it.
- 290 – 291 Travel & Hotels BRIEFING: A Hollywood hostelry, the down-low on the Danish capital and a steamy opening north of Stockholm.
- 292 – 293 Dublin CITY GUIDE: A superlative cinema, delicious fare and shops galore in the Irish capital.
- 294 – 295 DIY THE LIST: From plumb-lines to workbenches and screwdrivers, practical fixes for overhauling your home.
- 296 – 299 Retail BRIEFING: The best retailers, books worth nabbing and products to peruse. Not to mention some toe-tapping tunes.
- 300 – 301 45 Rue de Saintonge BEST IN CLASS: An incongruous but ingenious fragrance shop that sells coffee, Japanese rice snacks and fashion but somehow works in harmony.
- 301 – 302 Stockists DIRECTORY: Sleep, eat and shop in Adelaide, Florence, Hamilton and more.

YSL Museum — CULTURE, page 187.

Residence: Bristol — DESIGN, page 230.

Bakeries — ENTERTAINING, page 251.

United Arrows — FASHION, page 265.

Best in Class — INVENTORY, page 300.