Contents

AT THE FRONT

- 022 Contributors Some of the fine folk who made this issue.
- 025–026 Ed's Letter A word from our editor in chief Tyler Brülé.
- 026–027 The Opener Our snapshot of global views and news.
- 029 & 030 Observations Feeling the library love in Finland and surveying Hong Kong's skyscraper Christmas displays.
- 032–033 My Cabinet Lebanese band Mashrou' Leila on the team that keeps them out of trouble.
- 034 Cosy Corner Lorin Stein, editor in chief of The Paris Review, shows us his favourite place to tuck into a good book.
- 037–046 Big Interviews We meet the leaders who must trust their instincts during tricky times.

AFFAIRS

- 051–059 Soft Power Survey REPORT: Who's up, who's down and who's out? It's been a tumultuous year in politics and that, in turn, has shaken up our annual rankings.
- 065–068 Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva REPORT: Loved and loathed in almost equal measure, Brazil's former president "Lula" tells us his plan to bring the country back.
- 070 Politics BRIEFING: Malaysia's sporting MP and why small states should always behave like small states (apparently).
- 074–076 Diplomacy BRIEFING: Checking in with the ambassador in Rome, why Japan is looking to Latin America and the art of the ambassadorial Christmas card.
- 078 Defence BRIEFING: The Afghan airforce's new Black Hawk helicopters and a sartorial shift for the US army.
- 080 Cities BRIEFING: Zürich is considering artificial islands to house its growing population and there's a global push to unearth forgotten rivers.
- 083–098 Expo REPORT: San Marino may be small but it's also the world's oldest republic and proudly defends its traditions – with a crossbow.

BUSINESS

- 101–106 Wanzl REPORT: It might be the most prosaic product in the world but this German behemoth has built a global empire based on the humble shopping trolley.
- 108–109 Ari Weinzweig 10 STEPS TO SUCCESS: The co-founder of Zingerman's Community of Businesses explains how Bakedine and anarchism have helped him conquer a town in Michigan.
- 111–114 Pakt REPORT: A new creative hub in Antwerp proves that good design and thoughtful neighbours make a happy development.
- 116–117 Christmas market REPORT: Ever wanted to start your own Mitteleuropa Christmas market? Here's how to do it.
- 118–119 Phillip Knatchbull HOW I MANAGE: The CEO of Curzon, the thinking-person's cinema chain, tells us why the industry's big players are gunning for him.
- 120 Business BRIEFING: A new emporium for Japanese crafts in Singapore, a Czech glassware company gets a brand revamp and which countries spend the most on Christmas.

CULTURE

- 159 – 163 National Geographic REPORT: From the jungle to the deep blue sea, a voyage into the inner workings of that yellow border.
- 165 Sumie PROFILE: The Swedish-Japanese artist's newest album is a masterclass for the season of mists and mellow fruitfulness.
- 167 – 170 Internazionale REPORT: Another Italian print success story: why this international news digest is essential reading.

DESIGN

- 173 – 177 Aarhus city hall REPORT: We tour a building of legendary design and meet the team keeping it pristine.
- 180 – 181 Amman REPORT: Exploring the Jordanian design capital that's alive with bright ideas.
- 182 – 183 Architecture BRIEFING: From a small studio in Mallorca to a UK factory that's also a creative space, showroom and museum, we round up the best in global design.
- 184 – 189 Sea Ranch RESIDENCE: A community of timber homes is sitting pretty on the Californian coast.
- 191 – 198 Shopping MERCHANDISE: Monocle skincare, clothing, accessories, stationery and much, much more.

ENTERTAINING

- 201 – 203 How to lay a table REPORT: Laying on a Christmas spread? Heed the advice on place-setting from luminaries in diplomacy and design – and the front-runners in food, of course.
- 204 – 205 Food & drink BRIEFING: The best in drinking and dining, from a Sydney stop-in to a Chicago canteen and Athenian deli.
- 206 – 207 Christmas drinks REPORT: The wisest buys (red, white or rosé) and the bottle of bubbles we'd plump for, not to mention a few low-fuss highballs to muddle-up this Yuletide.
- 208 – 209 Ronald Akili MY LAST MEAL: The fictional final feast of an Indonesian hospitality impresario at a beachside berth in Bali.

F

FASHION

- 211 – 215 Stutterheim REPORT: The founder of Sweden's famed Stutterheim raincoat label has launched a knitwear brand – and bought a sheep farm to boot.
- 216 – 217 Canada Goose REPORT: After a successful year, Toronto's historic coat-maker is on its way to Europe. How will it fare?
- 218 – 219 Fashion BRIEFING: We ponder whether fashion brands can sell happiness, plus the best autumn/winter looks from Margaret Howell and New Zealand's Kowtow, among others.
- 220 – 233 Men's & womenswear FASHION: Ready for the big freeze?

I
