

Contents

- 022 Contributors The writers, illustrators and photographers who made this issue.
- 025 Ed's letter Words from our editor in chief, Tyler Brülé.

AT THE FRONT

- 026–027 The Opener News and intrigue from around the globe.
- 028–030 Observations We undergo some light hazing in Portugal and answer the call of nature in Japan.
- 031 Cosy Corner Greek pop doyenne Anna Vissi lifts the lid on her backstage antics.
- 036–037 My Cabinet Miguel Falomir Faus, director of the National Prado Museum, on the art of building a curatorial team.

AFFAIRS

- 039–043 Fixing Rome REPORT: Overflowing bins, exploding buses and crumbling infrastructure: Rome's urban woes are dire. Meet four visionaries working to fix the Eternal City.
- 045–047 Erna Solberg INTERVIEW: We sit down with Norway's centre-left PM as she oversees fundamental changes in her country.
- 049–051 Israel REPORT: The Israel Defence Force's new Negev desert mega-base could mark a new era of expansion. But what does it mean for Israelis who aren't represented by the IDF?
- 052–057 Little Rock REPORT: The new generation of civic leaders and entrepreneurs intent on turning around the Arkansas capital.
- 058 Politics BRIEFING: Kazakhstan's retiring president, Denmark's Green party leader and Nordic nations feeling postal pressure.
- 060 Cities BRIEFING: A multipurpose hospital in Milan, New York's glass-skyscraper ban and Belgian bicycle taxes.
- 062 Diplomacy BRIEFING: Bulgaria's digital goodwill ambassador, Finland's happy holiday and a Brazilian change of heart.
- 064 Defence BRIEFING: New subs for Taiwan, the Egyptian navy's spending spree, and Greece and North Macedonia make up.

BUSINESS

- 067–089 Transport SURVEY: We meet the major players shaping the agenda around the world and take a look at exciting global developments to watch out for. Plus: boutique bike-makers, yachts in Asia and the best commutes. Enjoy the ride.

CULTURE

- 093–096 Private eyes ESSAY: Two former journalists spill the beans on their new careers as gumshoes – and explain why the two jobs aren't so different.
- 100–101 Arri REPORT: We spotlight the company whose illuminating work behind the scenes makes films a shining successes.
- 102–103 Corine REPORT: Straight from the South of France, this Gallic popstar is poised to make a theatrical international entrance.
- 104–105 The Ten BRIEFING: Our essential guide to what you should be listening to, watching, reading and visiting this month.

Fixing Rome — AFFAIRS, page 039.

Toronto bikemakers — TRANSPORT SURVEY, page 084.

Corine — CULTURE, page 102.

ISSUE 124 COVER
PHOTOGRAPHER: David Sykes

D*DESIGN

- 107 – 111 Regeneration REPORT: From a bombed-out Milanese building to a revamped Parisian garage, we look at the architects giving new life to old buildings.
- 113 – 116 Graphic design, Warsaw REPORT: We meet the designers responsible for the Polish capital's world-class creative output.
- 118 – 123 Tokyo RESIDENCE: In the Japanese capital's leafy Machida area, an old home receives a handsome overhaul from the designer behind furniture brand Mobley Works.
- 124 – 125 Architecture BRIEFING: Raf Simons discusses a new range of furniture fabrics, plus the concrete creation rising from the Jordanian desert.
- 127 – 130 Shopping MERCHANDISE: Our best-in-class summer jacket and unique sweatshirt collaboration.

E*ENTERTAINING

- 133 – 137 Tokyo food trucks REPORT: Get into gear with the company rehabilitating the reputation of the capital's kitchen cars.
- 138 – 139 Paris bistro REPORT: We check in at Le Train Bleu for a taste of trackside dining in the golden-age style.
- 140 – 141 Food and drink BRIEFING: New openings from Lima to London, plus a few saucy table-toppers and something for your bookshelf.
- 142 – 143 Eero Aarnio MY LAST MEAL: The famed Finnish industrial designer pulls up a chair in Espoo.

F*FASHION

- 145 – 149 East LA REPORT: We get the measure of the dynamic designers at work in LA's Silver Lake, Echo Park and Frogtown.
- 150 – 151 Moonstar REPORT: The Japanese shoemaker best known for children's plimsolls is attracting a grown-up international audience with its canvas trainers.
- 152 – 153 Fashion BRIEFING: An all-star Norwegian collaboration between Holzweiler and Snohotta, plus the top summer T-shirts.
- 154 – 163 Menswear SHOOT: Light and breezy gear that will get you through summer in style.
- 164 – 169 Womenswear SHOOT: Bright colours and bold accessories.

I*INVENTORY

- 171 – 175 Summer boats REPORT: The craft you want to sail this season, from lake rowers to yachts and cruise ships.
- 176 – 177 Hotel August REPORT: Architect Vincent Van Duysen's first hotel project in Antwerp, plus the best places to see and the top things to do while you're there.
- 178 – 179 Travel and hotels BRIEFING: We visit hotels from Greece to New York and show you the airline travel amenities that you won't want to miss.
- 180 – 181 Potts Point RETAIL SAFARI: A tour of the best shops, markets and cafés that the Sydney neighbourhood has to offer.
- 182 – 183 Shopping BRIEFING: A selection of accessories for your next cycling trip – bells, wine-bottle holders and more.
- 184 – 185 Stockists DIRECTORY: We visit Singapore, San Francisco, Frankfurt, Tokyo and Amsterdam – five cities well worth exploring on your next layover.
- 187 – 202 Truck stops EXPO: Pull up at the stop-offs where long-haul truckers of America find solace and sanctuary.

Graphic design in Warsaw — DESIGN, page 113.

Tokyo food trucks — ENTERTAINING, page 133.

East LA designers — FASHION, page 145.

Hotel August — INVENTORY, page 176.