

JULY/AUGUST

Contents

Meet the mayors — AFFAIRS, page 072.

- 022 Contributors A few of the people who made this issue.
 025 Ed's letter A word from our editor in chief, Tyler Brülé.

AT THE FRONT

- 026 – 027 The Opener News and views from around the world.
 028 – 029 Passport stamps REPORT: Cities aren't just about response times and cleanliness: we chart some idiosyncrasies too.
 031 – 035 Observations New York's revamped bookmobiles, Hong Kong's canine defence forces and crane spotting in Munich.
 036 – 037 My Cabinet Kyoto's fire brigade has an unusual beat. Meet the team charged with protecting Japan's ancient capital.
 038 Cosy Corner We find a clearing in Vienna's leafy Stadtpark to talk to Armin Thurnher, editor of the city's finest weekly.
 041 – 065 Liveable cities SLIDESHOW: Our annual Quality of Life rundown – where does your city rank?

Low-overheads cities — BUSINESS, page 099.

AFFAIRS

- 067 – 071 Residents rulebook REPORT: A checklist of urban etiquette.
 072 – 075 Meet the mayors INTERVIEWS: The bosses of Bratislava, New Orleans, Seoul and more hold forth on how to run things.
 077 – 081 New hospitals REPORT: A health-check on the hospitals and clinics that promise city residents a better quality of care.
 084 – 085 Try fixing this REPORT: We visit three cities with seemingly intractable problems and meet the folks trying to remedy them.
 086 – 087 Tall stories REPORT: The places that bring our cities to life.
 088 Europe BRIEFING: Food markets in Turin, green (and sleek) transit infrastructure in Tilburg and Oslo's public art biennial.
 090 Americas BRIEFING: Housing in Boston gets dense, Bogotá transport takes to the skies and a book reconsiders the suburbs.
 093 Asia-Pacific BRIEFING: Hong Kong's anticipated sports park, Utsunomiya LRT is on track, and boosting business in Perth.
 096 AME BRIEFING: Regeneration in Tehran, Swiss-sponsored bike lanes in Beirut and a park transformation in Johannesburg.

Summer 100 — CULTURE, page 117.

BUSINESS

- 099 – 105 Low-overheads cities REPORT: You needn't pay more to live better, as our reports on Porto, Thessaloniki and Bari show.
 106 – 109 They build cities REPORT: We meet the firms responsible for the cranes, concrete and landscaping behind urban success.
 110 – 111 Office culture REPORT: Looking after employee welfare pays dividends (and that doesn't mean beanbags).
 113 Business BRIEFING: Rabat's runway, a food firm cutting back on waste and the footwear company that's still a step ahead.

ISSUE 125 COVER
ILLUSTRATION:
WorldofBofy

CCULTURE

- 117 – 129 Summer 100 REPORT: The essential list of galleries to go to, books to buy, cinemas worth seeing and sounds of the season – and the printed matter that matters.

DDESIGN

- 131 – 138 Parks and recreation SURVEY: Green spaces in Amsterdam, Berlin and Bangkok; other cities, take note.
- 140 – 155 Merano RESIDENCE: We're in the German-speaking northern Italian province of South Tyrol to visit a mid-century gem.
- 156 – 163 Haifa REPORT: We admire the architectural wiles of Israel's Mediterranean port city on the slopes of Mount Carmel.
- 164 – 165 Architecture BRIEFING: Denmark's longest timber building has been rebuilt and the Pavilion Le Corbusier reopens.

EENTERTAINING

- 167 – 171 Kageoka no Ie REPORT: This canny community centre in Tokyo is teaching children to cook and break bread together.
- 172 – 173 In praise of punch RECIPES: We proffer summer punch recipes as we toast being a little fruity every now and again.
- 174 – 175 Food and drink BRIEFING: A sharp chopping bowl and restaurants from London to Hong Kong (via Izmir).
- 176 – 177 Christoph Niemann MY LAST MEAL: The German artist and illustrator on his 'final feast' in Berlin's Mitte.
- 178 – 181 Shopping BRIEFING: Summer accessories, clothing and homeware – all made within the Iberian peninsula

FFASHION

- 183 – 187 Luxe sportswear REPORT: A countdown of the brands worth knowing if you're planning on getting fit (in style).
- 188 – 189 Lunge REPORT: An manufacturer of orthopaedic (and somewhat clumpy) German shoes on how to stay in step.
- 190 – 193 Pierre Hardy Q&A: Hermès' creative director of footwear on Paris in the summer and whether we've reached peak sneaker.
- 194 – 195 Rabih Kayrouz REPORT: A look at the womenswear designer's new shop in a former residence in Beirut.
- 196 – 197 Fashion BRIEFING: This month's fashion must-knows, from straw hats to swimmers and sandals.
- 199 – 205 Men's and womenswear SHOOT: Suitcase essentials for a summer getaway.

IINVENTORY

- 207 – 221 River special REPORT: A few cities that have successfully reinvigorated their riversides, from rowing in Turin to swimming in Basel and biking along the banks in Brisbane.
- 223 – 238 City improvements EXPO: Inspired ideas for city living, from an urban high-dive to housing for hedgehogs.

Parks and recreation — DESIGN, page 131.

Kageoka no Ie — ENTERTAINING, page 167.

Luxe sportswear — FASHION, page 183.

River special — INVENTORY, page 207.