

OCTOBER

Contents

- 024 Contributors The fine folk who made this issue.
 027 Ed's letter Tyler Brülé provides some wit and wisdom.

AT THE FRONT

- 028 - 029 The Opener Finnish flying squirrels take a stand for the environment and our new store in Hong Kong lands.
 031 - 032 Reports The charity giving refugees a lift in Lebanon and the return of artefacts stolen during the Second World War.
 034 - 035 Me and my Cabinet The collections store team from London's V&A on the museum's biggest move yet.
 036 Cosy Corner The editor in chief of Zeit Magazin sips downers and discusses the state of Germany.

AFFAIRS

- 039 - 046 Iowa State Fair REPORT: The campaign trail for the 2020 US presidential election is long and winding but no candidate would dare miss this pivotal event.
 049 - 052 Nicola Sturgeon INTERVIEW: We sit down with Scotland's first minister to talk Brexit and independence.
 054 Politics BRIEFING: We meet Finland's interior minister and take stock of China's plans for its 70th anniversary.
 055 Defence BRIEFING: Russian construction in Gogland is making Finland nervous and the US makes an eyebrow-raising purchase from the Israelis.
 058 Diplomacy BRIEFING: Canada's ambassador for women, peace and security talks progress and problems; plus who's winning in the diplomatic stakes between Serbia and Kosovo.
 060 Cities BRIEFING: Copenhagen's mayor explains why even the best cities should focus on improving top-notch transport and Kobe bans high-rise residents in its urban core.
 063 Anna König Jerlmyr INTERVIEW: We meet the mayor of Stockholm who is out to control crime and gangs.

BUSINESS

- 065 - 071 Weather REPORT: A look at the entrepreneurs and companies capitalising on one of the world's biggest resources: weather.
 072 - 073 Manfred Fitzgerald 10 STEPS TO SUCCESS: The CEO of Hyundai's luxury Genesis brand tells us why sports, barbecues and his family are key to his achievements.
 076 - 077 La Rosa REPORT: The Italian mannequin maker getting ahead by investing in bespoke solutions for the big names in fashion.
 079 - 081 Cactus REPORT: How Luxembourg's oldest and largest supermarket chain topped people's shopping lists.
 082 Business BRIEFING: A Swiss boatmaker using great design to stay afloat and how Hasselblad is staying relevant.

CULTURE

- 085 - 096 Autumn Preview REPORT: From French submarine thrillers to raunchy Swedish pop and performance art biennales, everything that should be on your cultural calendar.

Iowa State Fair — AFFAIRS, page 039.

Cactus — BUSINESS, page 079.

Autumn Preview — CULTURE, page 085.

D

DESIGN

- 101 – 106 Holy architecture REPORT: Updating the vernacular of spiritual and sacred spaces.
- 109 – 114 Aspen REPORT: The ski resort's heritage of modernist architecture is surprising and rich – forget the snow and sample some of the city's Bauhaus marvels.
- 117 – 120 Turkey REPORT: A timber masterpiece of a modern museum has risen in the city of Eskisehir.
- 124 – 127 Amorepacific OFFICE: The Seoul conglomerate's HQ is foregoing traditional office design in favour of surroundings that inspire a healthier and happier workforce.
- 128 – 129 Architecture BRIEFING: The brave design of a new beachside pavilion in Melbourne and a school in India using good architecture to enhance its students education
- 132 – 135 Shopping MERCHANDISE: Our latest travel range.

E

ENTERTAINING

- 137 – 141 The new faces of Burgundy REPORT: We meet the winemakers changing the old image of this storied French region.
- 142 – 143 Food BRIEFING: Top tables and food finds from across the globe; plus a simple and sumptuous recipe.
- 144 – 145 My Last Meal INTERVIEW: NPR presenter and reporter Ari Shapiro breaks bread for his 'final feast' in Washington.

F

FASHION

- 147 – 152 Adrian Joffe INTERVIEW: The softly spoken CEO of Comme des Garçons International and Dover Street Market International sheds light on running fashion's most idiosyncratic empire.
- 155 – 183 Autumn Manifesto REPORT: We intersperse news and opinion pieces with a countdown of the designers and retailers to watch – plus the best autumn looks.
- 185 – 187 Jeans GUIDE: Button up and fly right.
- 188 – 189 Farm to face REPORT: A new crop of savvy farmers is turning from beasts to beauty.
- 191 – 194 Noah REPORT: The Manhattan brand's punk-rock attitude and surf/skate sensibility is creating serious waves.
- 196 – 199 Shenkar fashion school REPORT: Tel Aviv has one of the world's best fashion schools – we pay its students a visit.
- 201 – 203 €500 brands REPORT: There's a new sweet spot in the womenswear market. Meet the brands making runway-style pieces with affordable price tags.
- 205 – 208 Watches SHOOT: The latest luxury watch models to covet.

i

INVENTORY

- 211 – 215 Cities at 07.00 REPORT: Making the most of the morning in Sydney, Seoul and San Francisco.
- 216 – 217 Travel BRIEFING: New hotel openings from Beirut to New York; plus our guide to Morocco.
- 218 – 219 Hospitality REPORT: Playtime takes on a whole new meaning at Trunk House, a unique addition to Tokyo's hotel offering.
- 220 – 221 Gärtnerel Meier BEST IN CLASS: We explore the Swiss family-run garden centre's deep roots and blossoming success.
- 222 – 225 Dogs in coats STILL LIFE: Need we say more?
- 227 – 242 Haircuts EXPO: Cutting to the heart of the fringe movements of Los Angeles.

Aspen — DESIGN, page 109.

The new faces of Burgundy — ENTERTAINING, page 137.

Shenkar fashion school — FASHION, page 196.

Cities at 07.00 — INVENTORY, page 211.